Chairman Foster to present 2013 State of the County Address this Evening

Durham, NC –Durham Board of County Commissioners' Chairman Fred Foster, Jr. will present his State of the County Address this evening. The address will be presented at the beginning of the regular County Commissioners meeting, scheduled for 7:00 p.m. in the County Commissioners' Chambers, located on the second floor of the Durham County Administrative Complex, 200 E. Main St.

The message uses a new format this year, a pre-recorded video presentation. Chairman Foster's address will focus on Durham County's highlights and achievements during the previous year, and will examine some of the economic conditions at the state and federal level that may potentially impact the preparation of the upcoming budget.

The message will be broadcast live on Time Warner Cable's Channel 8 and streamed on the County's Live and Archived Media Library webpage.

For more information about the State of the County Address, contact Michelle Parker-Evans, Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, at 919 560-0025 or via email at mparker-evans@dconc.gov
