

DURHAM BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Resolution

AVA LEWIS

WHEREAS, Ava Lewis decided to make a difference in her community in a creative way; and

WHEREAS, this dynamic three-year-old girl came up with the idea of selling lemonade to thirsty patrons and donating profits from her lemonade stand to purchase diapers from struggling mothers in need; and

WHEREAS, people began to understand her goal of helping others, and over several weeks, customers began to purchase gallons of lemonade, rather than just cups to increase Ava’s funds; and

WHEREAS, this sweet and compassionate young lady is now known as the “Lemonade Baby” as she used her proceeds to buy diapers and baby supplies for children in need which she donated to the Durham Rescue Mission.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we the members of the Durham County Board of Commissioners, do hereby resolve to honor for her genuine kindness and for showing others a spirit of caring and concern for the well-being of others.

This 14th day of October 2019.
